HIGH PRICES OF BREAD AND MEAT IN EUROPE.

The citizens of Edinburg and Paris have become simultaneously alarmed at the prices of bread and meat, and are indignant at the supposed inordinate profits of bakers and butchers. According to the Paris papers, "the public cry is loud and menancing," which must be an anxious moment for those tradesmen who have read how their predecessors were handled in | The Hub Threatened With a Water the French Revolution. The butchers, especially, are denounced for their rapacity, since the price of oxen has fallen consider ably of late, while scarcely any abatement has been made in the price of meat. In Scotland the same complaint is raised in the columns of the Edinburg press. Bakers and butchers are charged with unjustifiable extortion, and protection demanded. In view of the excessive price of meat, the importation of Australian beef is earnestly

More Trouble at the Nelsonville, O., Mines.

CINCINNATI. Nov. 18.-Word comes from reliable source that affairs at the Nelsonville coal mines are far from being quiet. For several nights the colored miners and those in sympathy with them, have been fired upon by men in ambush. Last night, a mail carrier was fired upon and his horse killed. Further trouble is apprehended.

Pennsylvania's Iron Troubles.

PRITSBURG, Nov. 18 .- The sub-committee of the Iron Manufacturers' and the Puddlers' Union met in joint session today. The proceedings were secret, and representatives of the press were not admitted; but it is understood that no settlement was reached. Another general meeting of both sides will be held on Saturday next, when, it is hoped, some amicable arrangement will be made, thus averting the threatened danger.
